Palliative Care

What is Palliative Care: Palliative care is meant to improve the quality of life of a patient who has a serious or terminal illness, such as cancer. Palliative care can be provided at any time during cancer treatment, from diagnosis to end of life. When a person receives palliative care, they can continue to receive cancer treatment.

Palliative care approaches the treatment that focuses on the person, not just their disease. The goal of palliative care is to prevent or treat symptoms and side effects of the disease as early as possible. In addition, they shall receive support in spiritual, social, and related psychological problems. Patients may receive palliative care in an outpatient clinic, long term care facility, hospital, or at home under the care of a licensed health care provider.

Palliative care can begin at any point during treatment. Hospice care begins when the curative treatment is at the maximum capacity and the sole focus is on quality of life.

For more information on palliative care, please call the HHHOK office at 316-869-0015.

Oreo turns One!

Oreo is practicing his therapy skills. He is still learning and growing every day. Oreo is the most loveable animal you will ever meet. He does not know a stranger. Oreo, thank you for making our lives a little brighter. We love you.

Merry everything and happy always

Home Health & Hospice of Kansas

Home Health & Hospice of Kansas is locally owned and operated by Registered Nurses and has been in business since 2005. We believe in making every life as meaningful as possible. We value the quality of life as much as quantity. Our mission is dedicated in providing exceptional, high quality and comprehensive services to our clients, families, and the community. Our nurses, aides, therapists, social workers, and chaplains are all certified, screened and highly trained to serve our patients with skill and compassion. We offer home health, palliative care, and hospice services.

To request information about skilled in-home services, call our office at (316) 869-0015.

Just as the branches
of a tree strengthen
and grow upwards to
the sky,
we too grow stronger,
striving for greater
knowledge, wisdom,
and new experiences

as we move
through life.
